SEMINAR

Canine Fitness for Dog Enthusiasts With Dr. Barb Cole, CCRP

This seminar will combine short lectures, take home handouts as well as hands on instruction with you and your dog.

Topics covered will include the foundations of fitness and how to apply them to your pet's activities, weight evaluation, exercises that can be done at home (with or without specialized equipment), stretches, as well as how the pet owner can evaluate and assess their own dogs' health and abilities.

Barb Cole DVM graduated from the Western College of Veterinary Medicine in 1999. Since graduation, she has developed a strong interest in orthopedics as well as sports medicine and rehabilitation. She has been the owner of Aurora Animal Clinic since 2012 and is a Certified Canine Rehabilitation Practitioner (CCRP). Her special interests include Agility, Scent Work, Skijoring, Brittany Spaniels, Labrador Retrievers and all things four legged.
