

TVKC BOARD MEETING APRIL 2, 2008

Old business: spay neuter coupons: Becky Fuller will hand out.

Sanction match: ready

Eye clinic: Ingrid will arrange for a clinic in 2009

Dog Aggression: two dogs were removed from TVKC classes for human aggression and full refunds were made.

Dog-dog aggression will be handled by a class instruction teachers and students how to look for signs of dog-dog aggression and how to handle it. Suggestions for instruction included Wednesday night class or a Sunday class similar to the Heidi Benson class and would be held at the beginning of the fall.

Old Business:

General meeting for the TVKC General meeting, April 2, 2008

Treasurer's report: attached

Membership: updated on the website

Correspondence: Becky Fuller: pet looking for home.

Website: stats up 5%. 16,000 hits on the Yahoo site.

Newsletter: out after meeting.

Classes: two left

Unfinished Business:

Tacking Seminar: Kelly needs more participants.

Fun match: March fun match was well attended and made money.

May show and go: have grounds for Saturday and Sunday @ 12:00

PR: mush for kids; Janet will put out AKC pamphlets.

Hospitality: absent

May show and Agility and Tracking shows are on ready. Tracking has three judges. Kelly's classes are almost full.

Silent Auction: Ingrid needs help

Meet the Breed: May 10, 2008, on Pets and People's Day; rally ring will be set up at 12:00. CGC test will be at 1:00.

Bylaws: a second reading was made of the new bylaws which were also published on the website for two weeks before the meeting. Ron Gatterdam made the motion that the club accept the corrected bylaws.

Kristi Davis seconded this request and it was unanimously passed.

New Business: The Anchorage Luring Club will put on a demonstration at the May show at Creamers Field. The Fly Ball club will put on a demo at the Largent Barn in the evening after the show is over.

They are insured.

Move to adjourn by Donna W. and seconded by Nona

Respectfully submitted,

Rebecca Gatterdam