

TVKC Board meeting: August 7, 2017

Meeting called to order at 7:00 by Renee Morgan.

Treasurer: Carole Petersen announced that she had moved funds from the individual accounts to the main. She handed out the treasurer's report.

Membership: It was recommended that the membership card have one date for expiration. Board agreed to streamlining the card.

Agility: there will be no Intermediate or Advanced classes this year. Handling classes will be run by four handlers and they will work their dogs between classes rather than take vouchers. The prices for the new handling classes: $140.00 for members, $150.00 for non-members.

Wendy Uzzell moved that: TVKC accept the new structure and increased prices for handling classes. Passed unanimously.

The October trial of 2018 will be replaced by a June trial. In Nov. 2017, TVKC will sponsor an agility seminar.

Classes: made $ and had two fun matches; new classes have been advertised. Amy will teach junior's conformation and Susan Parsons will teach regular conformation and Star Puppy.

Hospitality: cards sent; summer party successful; Christmas party is in planning stages.

Public Relations: newsletter sent out; Nov. letter will include brags and the Breeder of Merit list.

Website: Sue Acquistapace reports that the website has new links to the AKC site; she is starting a program for Girl Scouts to achieve badges which are related to the dog show world. There was a request for the website to add the Nov. dog show dates and dates of Alaska specialities.

Tracking: four tests will be held in August, including two TD's, one TDX, and a VST and TDU.

There will be a seminar by the 2017 judges.

New business: there is a need for binders for the board chairs and show chairs. TVKC needs to have new CGC evaluators so that we can cover events.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00
